MINUTES

1. Introductions / Agenda Review / Minutes

Welcome to our new NC LIVE admin, Brittaney.

2. NCLSM Rewrite and New Splash Page Updates

As part of a project to rewrite the NC LIVE Service Module, the redirection code that pushes users to specific resources; e.g., ProQuest Central: https://www.nclive.org/cgi-bin/nclsm?rsrc=296).

NC LIVE is preparing to launch a new splash page on July 14th.
- Daniel has been reworking the redirection and redundancy for NCLSM. The old links and IDs will still work on the new page.
- Claire will send out downtimes for the website and information regarding the new webpage.

3. nclive.org en español?

NC LIVE is considering adding a Spanish translation option for the NC LIVE site. WAC will provide recommendations based on example library and/or consortium websites that support multiple languages.

4. Accessibility Tools Discussion

As NC LIVE gears up for our resource cycle next year, it would be helpful to be able to get a handle on some available tools for checking accessibility to make a recommendation to the RAC.

NC LIVE will be evaluating resources to add/replace for next year. Last cycle, we helped the LC by providing a document that described the accessibility of each of our resources. We used the program lighthouse to develop this. Lighthouse seems to have changed some items.
- We can think about what tools libraries have utilized in the past.
- Feel free to tap certain departments on your campus to assist with this.
- We want to list a tool and the reasons we would want to utilize it for a specific resource.
- In the past, we have compared what we expected a tool to deliver vs what was actually delivered.
- We will want to list tools we can use, or services to check accessibility and decide on one.
- If you have any thoughts/items that would be helpful please share.

Future Projects - 2022-2023

Members are encouraged to propose new projects, updates, and fixes to the NC LIVE website and associated services.

5. Updates from Committee Members

Committee members will have an opportunity to discuss relevant website and interface issues, ask questions, or get feedback about their own web projects.
